ABOUT THE STAFF

JAMES M. HOELTJE — Producer / Conductor

This is Mr. Hoeltje's 12th musical production at Gateway High School. Beginning in 2010, he has served as the musical's assistant producer and, in some years, conductor before taking over the role as Producer and Conductor in 2017. Mr. Hoeltje is the Director of Bands at Gateway High School, conducting the Wind Ensemble, Symphonic Band, and Percussion Ensemble. Mr. Hoeltje also teaches all courses in Music Technology levels 1 and 2. He serves as the Director of the Gateway High School Marching Band and Jazz Band and holds positions as the stage manager in the Robert A. Read Performing Arts Center and drama club sponsor. He is a 2007 graduate of the Indiana University of Pennsylvania with a Bachelor's of Science degree in Music Education and a 2017 graduate of Duquesne University with a Master of Music in Music Education degree. He is a member of the Pennsylvania Music Educators Association (PMEA), Technology Institute for Music Education (TI:ME), and Gateway Education Association. Mr. Hoeltje, his wife Kim, and their children, Annabelle and Jackson, reside in the Holiday Park area of Plum Borough.

LARRY F. CERVI — Director

This is Mr. Cervi's 26th musical at Gateway High School, having directed productions that include Brigadoon, Mame, Oklahoma!, Beauty and the Beast, West Side Story, Lés Miserables, and Fiddler on the Roof. He has also directed the plays The Prime of Miss Jean Brodie, You Can't Take it With You, Our Town, Spoon River Anthology, and Inherit the Wind at Gateway High School. After graduating from the University of Pittsburgh, Mr. Cervi taught English at Swissvale High School and Speech and Drama at Churchill Area High School. He is an advisory board member of The Conservatory of Performing Arts (COPA) at Point Park University, and has directed more than 70 musicals for local high schools. As an owner of numerous performing arts schools in the Pittsburgh area for more than 30 years, many of his students have gone on to study Musical Theater and Dance at prestigious universities including Carnegie Mellon, New York, Point Park, Penn State, CCM, and Michigan, where his granddaughter, Kaylie, is a senior.

SNEŽANA LAZICH — Vocal Director

Snežana Lazich graduated from Duquesne University where she received a Bachelor and Master of Music Degree in Music Education. She has studied with Andre Thomas, Anton Armstrong, James Jordan, Brady Allred and other well known instructors in her field. Miss Lazich has been a music/voice teacher for over twenty years and is currently teaching in the Charleroi School District, along with directing and teaching various ensembles in the Pittsburgh area. She is the Music Director of The Masterworks Concert Chorale, and Carica Milica- a Serbian female ensemble. In addition, Miss Lazich has considerable experience working and preparing musical theatre productions such as Oklahoma, Honk, Drowsy Chaperone, Fiddler on the Roof, South Pacific, Dirty Rotten Scoundrels, Beauty and the Beast, Hello, Dolly!, and West Side Story.

ALEXANDER MCDANIEL – Assistant Vocal Director

Master's of Music: Vocal Performance/Music Theatre (NYU), Advanced Certificate of Pedagogy (NYU), Bachelor of Arts: Liberal Studies/Music Theater (PPU), has worked as a piano/voice teacher for over 15 years. Previous teaching positions being Adjunct Voice Instructor at the New York University - Steinhardt, Private Studio, The Pittsburgh CLO Academy, and Premier Performing Arts. Students include professional recording artists, professional theater performers, current Musical Theatre majors from numerous universities, and aspiring singers of all ages. Alexander continued his education in Vocology at NYU - specializing in compromised voices and Vocal Rehabilitation, studying under the Voice Center team of physicians and speech pathologists at the NYU Langone Medical Center. His performance credits include Off-Broadway, Broadway Concert Series, New Musical Cast Recording, Regional Theater, Television, and Film. Alexander is a proud member of the Screen Actor's Guild. He would like to thank Larry Cervi for this opportunity and also for the many years of education, mentoring, and countless other opportunities he has provided!

DWIGHT BROWN – Sound Engineer

Mr. Brown, owner of Good Sounds in New Stanton, holds a B.A. in Music Education from West Virginia Wesleyan College. He had eight years of experience as a high school choral director at Southmoreland High School before starting his company in 2004. He is proud to be able to bring the experience of a classically trained musician and director to every show that he produces, which sets him apart from most other sound technicians. He has very much enjoyed being a part of Gateway's musicals for the past 8 years. Dwight would like to thank Mr. Cervi and Mr. Hoeltje for giving him the opportunity to be a part of such an amazing and professional production.

Nicole White – Lighting Designer

Nicole White, is ecstatic to be joining the Gateway team on this production. After graduating from Point Park University in 2016 with a BFA in theater arts, she has designed plays, musicals, concerts, and events. Most recently, she has designed lights for Alumni Theater Company, ChoreoLab II by Point Park University, The Little Mermaid by Ambridge High School, The Book of Mormon by CLO, and My Traveling Song by Hiawatha. She would like to thank the cast and crew for making this show such an amazing experience.

Felice Rose – Choreographer

Felice is thrilled to be back at her alma mater experiencing what it's like to be on the other side of the table. She appeared in many of Gateway's productions from 2012-2016, most recognizably as Ivy Smith in On the Town. Felice is now a recent graduate of Slippery Rock University where she earned her BFA in Dance with a concentration in performance and choreography. She has also trained in NYC with the Steps on Broadway Summer Study and Broadway Dance Center's Online Training Program. Felice has been seen as a performer for world-renowned companies including Disney Cruise Line and RWS Entertainment and in multiple nationwide commercials. Additionally, she is so grateful to have this opportunity before heading off to her next adventure as a resident artist for English Musicals Korea! Felice would love to thank the cast and creative team for all their hard work as well as her friends and family for all the love and support. felicerose.com
